

Saint Andrew's
Theological College and Seminary

The Master of Biblical Theology

The Master of Biblical Theology is a 36 credit hour graduate Bible program designed to prepare students to serve God in the faithful teaching and applying of Holy Scripture. Bible studies are directed by a traditional, Trinitarian, and historically orthodox Christian standard of interpretation. Requirements to enter the MBTh: a Bachelor's degree from a recognized institution. No previous academic work in religion is required. At least 24 credit hours must be earned at St. Andrew's. Digital copies of many required textbooks are provided to the student at no additional charge.

Graduates of this program will be able to:

1. Demonstrate competence to teach and/or preach the word of God.
2. Display advanced biblical scholarship in the exposition of Holy Scripture.
3. Articulate Bible truth for the defense of the church and the expansion of the faith.
4. Evidence a biblical foundation for daily life.

Courses:

BC 505: General Introduction to the Bible (3 hours)
BC 545: Geography of the Bible (3 credit hours)
BC 605: Inductive Bible Study Methods (3 credit hours)
BC 655: Sermon Preparation and Homiletics (3 hours)
*MI 667: Homiletics Seminar (1 hour)
6 additional credit hours of bible
6 credit hours of biblical languages
6 additional credit hours in theology and/or apologetics
6 additional credit hours in practical theology

*Required for the License to Preach in the Orthodox Anglican Church.