

Saint Andrew's
Theological College and Seminary

The Licentiate in Sacred Theology

Sacrae Theologiae Licentiatus (STL). The Licentiate in Sacred Theology is a 16 credit hour graduate-level academic program limited to those who possess a Master's degree in a religious discipline from a recognized institution, and who possess ministerial experience, and who intend to move from their present faith tradition to ministry in an Anglican ecclesial body. Studies are directed according to the standards of doctrine, discipline and worship of the 1928 and 1662 editions of the Book of Common Prayer.

Graduates of this program will be able to:

- Exhibit excellence in conducting public worship and administering the sacraments according to the Book of Common Prayer
- Effectively articulate orthodox Anglican doctrine.

IC 100: How to Succeed at St. Andrew's (1 credit hour)

TH 500: The Holy Order of the Church (2 credit hours)

TH 550: Liturgical Theology (3 credit hours)

AP 501: Anglican Apologetics (3 credit hours)

TH 620: Sacramental Theology: Holy Communion (2 credit hours)

Core Courses: 11 credit hours

At least 5 credit hours of elective studies, selected among the following courses:

TH 610: Sacramental Theology: Holy Baptism and Confirmation (2 credit hours)

TH 630: Holy Matrimony (2 credit hours)

TH 640: Penance, Unction, and Spiritual Direction (2 credit hours)

TH 520: The Spiritual Formation of Clergy (2 credit hours)

BC 525: Survey of the Apocrypha (3 credit hours)

CH 642: The Early British Church (3 credit hours)

TH 650: Ecclesiology of the Early Church (3 credit hours)